Crowning Achievement

AS WE RAISE a glass to toast the impending nuptials of Prince William and Kate Middleton, we have to wonder what to get the couple who will (undoubtedly) have everything. Thank goodness for Blissliving Home's new Spring/Summer line, fortuitously inspired by the foggy days of London Town. Grays, beiges, silvery taupes and crisp ivories define the look, and we happen to think a cup o' tea, a cozy throw and an apropos pillow are the perfect set-up to watch the televised wedding of the century. Pip-pip!

Victoria neutral pillow ($75) and Mayfair white sheets ($20-$125 each). blisslivinghome.com
